

Introducing a new cat to your dog family?

Or dog to your cat family?

Welcoming a new furry friend for your pet? These tips can help make the transition less hairy.

Keep the dog leashed and behind a barrier, such as gate or crate.

Provide the cat with high places to perch and hide to feel safe.

Separate and distract the dog if overexcited.

Reward both animals with treats for calm and relaxed behavior.

Over time, allow closer, supervised interaction.

Allow the cat to investigate on their own terms.

Introducing a new pet often means introducing new expenses. Pet insurance can help you pay for veterinary care to keep your pets happy and healthy. In addition, you may be eligible for a 10% multi-pet discount for each additional pet.*
